Summary

The purpose of this document is to identify the rules for abstract submission to be presented to the XVIII Seminar on Child Motor Development. The formatting should be the same as in this document. Do not use paragraph formatting. The text is all justified with single spacing. Do not format font or font size. Letter Cambria in size 10. The abstract and abstract may not exceed 1500 (fifteen hundred) characters including spaces, each. Up to 5 keywords can be used, all lowercase (except first word of the first keyword), separated by semicolons (;). A blank line should be left before the authors' names, the abstract, and the abstract. Affiliations in italics, Cambria, size 8. The abstract submission must be made by June 16, 2023. The author must select the area in which the abstract fits: 1) Development, Learning and Motor Control; 2) Motor Development in contexts; 3) Disturbances and disorders in Motor Development; 4) Pedagogical Intervention in Motor Development or 5) Affordances, Perception and Action. The author must also express his preference for an oral communication or poster, and whether the work will be presented at the national (in Portuguese) or international (in English) seminar. The submission of the abstract according to this template must be made on the platform available on the official website of the event. The file name must identify the last name and first name of the first author (Example: Sousa_Ana). For more information send e-mail to xviiisdmc@umaia.pt.

Tables (maximum width and height of 12 cm) should be numbered. They shall display a descriptive header of the data presented and separate the header by a top and bottom row. Draw a continuous line also at the bottom of the last item in the list. Please note that all tables and any captions must contain all relevant information.

Skill	Age	Mean±SD	Age	Mean±SD
Throw	1	xx±yy	2	xx±yy
Run	1	xx±yy	2	xx±yy
Jump	1	xx±yy	2	xx±yy
Kick	1	xx±yy	2	xx±yy

The figures must have a maximum width and height of 12 cm. Only black and white figures will be accepted. The captions have to be succinct and fully clarify the content of the figure, namely the abbreviations used.

The titles of the figures should be below them. Do not forget to provide the correct units of measurement on the axes.
